WORD READING

Pupils should be taught to:

1. continue to apply phonic knowledge and skills as the route to decode words until automatic decoding has become embedded and reading is fluent
2. read accurately by blending the sounds in words that contain the graphemes taught so far, especially recognising alternative sounds for graphemes
3. read accurately words of two or more syllables that contain the same graphemes as above
4. read words containing common suffixes
5. read further common exception words, noting unusual correspondences between spelling and sound and where these occur in the word
6. read most words quickly and accurately, without overt sounding and blending, when they have been frequently encountered
7. read aloud books closely matched to their improving phonic knowledge, sounding out unfamiliar words accurately, automatically and without undue hesitation
8. reread these books to build up their fluency and confidence in word reading

COMPREHENSION

Pupils should develop pleasure in reading, motivation to read, vocabulary and understanding by:

9. listening to, discussing and expressing views about a wide range of contemporary and classic poetry, stories and non-fiction at a level beyond that at which they can read independently
10. discussing the sequence of events in books and how items of information are related
11. becoming increasingly familiar with and retelling a wider range of stories, fairy stories and traditional tales
12. being introduced to non-fiction books that are structured in different ways
13. recognising simple recurring literary language in stories and poetry
14. discussing and clarifying the meanings of words, linking new meanings to known vocabulary
15. discussing their favourite words and phrases
16. continuing to build up a repertoire of poems learnt by heart, appreciating these and reciting some, with appropriate intonation to make the meaning clear

Understand both the books that they can already read accurately and fluently and those that they listen to by:

17. drawing on what they already know or on background information and vocabulary provided by the teacher
18. checking that the text makes sense to them as they read, and correcting inaccurate reading
19. making inferences on the basis of what is being said and done
20. answering and asking questions
21. predicting what might happen on the basis of what has been read so far
22. participate in discussion about books, poems and other works that are read to them and those that they can read for themselves, taking turns and listening to what others say
23. explain and discuss their understanding of books, poems and other material, both those that they listen to and those that they read for themselves
